Australian professional services firm Tricor Chew merges with Kreston Dormers

Tricor Group (“Tricor”), is pleased to announce its further expansion in Australia, with the merger of Tricor Chew Pty Ltd and Kreston Dormers Pty Ltd to form Tricor ChewandDormers effective from 14th September 2017.

Tricor Chew is a joint venture between Tricor and Chew Investment Partners in Australia. Kreston Dormers is a Sydney-based accounting and advisory practice that was established almost 40 years ago by Tony Dormer, and was previously a member of the Kreston International network.

Tricor ChewandDormers operates on the East Coast of Australia with offices in Sydney CBD, North Western Sydney, Melbourne and Brisbane, and is a multi-disciplinary firm providing a comprehensive range of corporate and business services which include business consulting, tax and compliance, business set-up, general accounting, payroll, transaction services, immigration and other financial advisory services. The team is led by Kim Chew and Tony Dormer, and staffed by experienced and well-trained professionals.

Kim Chew, Tricor ChewandDormers Managing Director said, “We are delighted and excited by the merger with Kreston Dormers. Our key objectives are to leverage the significant expertise of our combined teams along with the Tricor network to provide a tailored and distinctive level of service for our clients, and to differentiate the firm through enhanced value for services.”

Tony Dormer, Tricor ChewandDormers Director said, “The merger with Tricor Chew further expands our service offering, strengthens our core competencies and solidifies our position in the Asia-Pacific Region. We have been seeking a suitable partner for a period of time and believe that significant synergies can be achieved through this merger.”
